2 Distribution Selection Committee, Hyderabad LPG, Post Bag No.9, HCL Post,
APIIC, IDA, Phase III Cherlapalli, Hyderabad

.....RESPONDENT(S)

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue an order or direction more particularly one in the nature of writ of mandamus or any other appropriate writ order or direction directing the respondents to consider my representation dated 13-7-2004 and in pursuance of the interviews held on 7-7-2004 basing on the call letters dated 12-6-2004 for the appointment/allotment of the distributorship of supplying the Bharath gas LPG cylinders to the consumers in Raikal Mandal of Karimnagar District as the petitioner is highly qualified for such appointment.

Counsel for the Petitioner:MR.K.VENUMADHAV

Counsel for the Respondents: MR.O.MANOHER REDDY

The Court at the stage of admission made the following ORDER:

In the present writ petition, petitioner is seeking direction to the respondents to consider her representation dated 13-07-2004 in pursuance of the interviews held on 07-07-2004 for appointment/allotment of the distributorship of supplying the Bharath gas LPG cylinders to the consumers in Raikal Mandal of Karimnagar district.

After due notification, interviews have been conducted. No irregularities have been pointed out in conducting interviews or the process of selection for allotment of distributorship.

As the respondents have not violated any of the guidelines or rules, the petitioner has no right to ask for allotment of LPG distributorship of Bharat gas or consider her case as per her representation dated 13-07-2004. In the absence of any clear violations made by the respondents in conducting the process of selection for allotment of distributorship, the prayer of the petitioner cannot be granted. The writ petition is devoid of merit and liable to be dismissed.

The writ petition is dismissed at the stage of admission. In the circumstances, no costs.
